

Ceremonies

Thank you for your recent inquiry relating to weddings at the Black Horse, we are delighted that you are considering using us to host your wedding celebrations. I would like to offer our congratulations to you and your partner on your forthcoming marriage.

The Black Horse in Baston is situated in a quaint village, in a rural part of South Lincolnshire, giving it a stunning backdrop for your wedding needs. Our premises has recently had an extensive refurbishment to cater for all occasions. Our beautiful garden is the ideal setting for your wedding photography to capture all those special moments of your day.

We have included some information on the hotel facilities and other services we can offer any potential bride and groom. We have also included our wedding packages from bronze through to platinum. Our wedding coordinator Kerry will happily discuss these packages with you and tailor them to complement your individual requirements. If you would like to visit the hotel or function room for a show around then please contact our wedding coordinator who will be happy to arrange this for you. We look forward to welcoming you to the Black Horse in the near future for your special day.

Planning your wedding.

Organising one of the most important days of your life can be a daunting task. With so many aspects that need to be explored, agreed upon and coordinated, such as seating plans, menus, Flowers and entertainment, you can easily feel overwhelmed. Sister we will offer advice and reassurance when needed, guiding you through every stage of organising your special day and give you Peace of Mind that you will have a day to remember.

The Black Horse is not only a romantic setting for your wedding reception catering for those couples that are deciding to opt for the less traditional wedding service but are looking for a venue that can offer enchantment in inspiration. You need look no further.

Our Cardyke suite is an elegant, private function room with its own bar and enough space for a band or DJ. Weather permitting our lovely garden provides an ideal location for arrival drinks and the perfect backdrop for your wedding photography.

Wedding packages have been put together to guide you and help you make the process as stress free as possible. Wedding coordinator will happily discuss these packages with you and tailor them to your individual requirements. We have a number of optional addons and little extras that will make your wedding day individual to you and compliment your chosen style.

Planning ahead and first steps

1. Establish a firm date for your wedding.
2. Contact the Black Horse and provisionally book the date.
3. Arrange a meeting with our dedicated wedding coordinator by contacting us on info@blackhorse-baston.co.uk
4. Contact the local registrar in Lincoln 01522 782244

Provisional bookings can be made with the registrar up to twelve months in advance, although confirmation must be made three months prior to your wedding day. They will provide you with comprehensive information based on your own requirements. This will provide you with all the detail and prices that you will need. Two registrars will attend your wedding and the hotel will provide you with a room on the day to complete the last-minute formalities with the registrars and, if required, this can be conducted individually.

For ceremony only is £350.

Ceremony and room hire until 6pm is £450.
